SRI B. BHASKAR SHETTY.—I move :

“That Sri M. V. Rajashekaran, be suspended from the House for the entire period of this Session.”

MR. SPEAKER. —The question is :

“That Sri M. V. Rajashekaran be suspended from the House for the entire period of this Session.”

The Motion was adopted.

MR. SPEAKER.—I request the hon. member to withdraw from the House.

(Sri M. V. Rajashekaran withdrew from the House)

SRI V. V. PATTAR (Jamkhandi).—Speaker Sir, supporting the demand put forth before this Assembly by the Hon. Revenue Minister I would like to say a few words. A peculiar situation arises, because there is no opposition practically.

MR. SPEAKER.—Why do you refer to all those things? please refer to the demand. Come to the point.

SRI V. V. PATTAR.—We have to suggest something by way of criticism also. We have been talking of the land reforms in this country even since 1930, i.e., the Karachi Congress session and from the time the popular Government was formed in the year 1937. The then Governments in various States passed the Land Reforms Act or the Tenancy Act. So far as Bombay is concerned the Tenancy Act came into force in the year 1937, but that Act was not effectively implemented in the Bombay State. We achieved the freedom in the year 1947 and soon after that, the Bombay Tenancy and Agriculture Land Act, 1948, was brought into force. That was there and wages were given to the landless. For quite a long period there was nothing but litigation. In the year 1956, the Bombay Tenancy and Agriculture Land Act was revised and was brought into force by way of an amendment. That was practically a very revolutionary act and all the tenants in the Bombay-Karnataka were the owners of the properties, but by then the Bombay-Karnataka area were merged in the larger State of Mysore. So, the progressive provisions of the amended 1948 Tenancy Act were not enforced. Then Jathi's Commission was appointed in order to bring a unified law in the State o
